DECODING THE DIVINE

STEVE JUDD

PENNY THORNTON

Invite you to join them for a four-day residential conference in Somerset

20-23 FEBRUARY 2025

ABOUT THE CONFERENCE

SOMERSET, ENGLAND

Astrology can be difficult. The more you know the less you understand! But it doesn't have to be this way.

In their decades of experience Steve Judd and Penny Thornton have learned how to make things simple. Not by leaving anything out but by reducing complex theories to their essence.

In this, their first conference together, Steve and Penny will be offering a full programme of talks and group sessions, which provide an arena for further discussion and also an opportunity to raise your own questions.

Each morning Qigong master, Peter Tadd, will hold a half-session to invigorate and wake-up your energy.

Steve and Penny have chosen a beautiful setting in the Somerset countryside where you can decompress as well as being in the astrology boiler room!

We look forward to welcoming you into our world!

PENNY THORNTON

Penny Thornton's career has spanned forty years. Trained at the Faculty of Astrological Studies and awarded its diploma, she has taught and lectured extensively in North America, Europe, Australia and the United Kingdom. She has combined her work as a serious astrologer with a popular role, writing columns and making television appearances worldwide. In 1998, she presented a daily astrology spot on the US television Food Network. In 2000, Penny established Astrolutely.com, which has become one of the top astrology sites in the world. She started a YouTube channel in 2019. Her first book Synastry was published in 1982, seven more have followed, and an eighth, part of "The Astrology Handbook" series, Forecasting, is in the pipeline.

STEVE JUDD

Steve Judd has studied astrology since 1977. He is self-taught and was awarded the MA in Cultural Astronomy and Astrology in 2005. In 45 years he has records of over 35,000 horoscope readings with a large and loyal client base, many of whom return for yearly updates, primarily over zoom or facetime. With over 95,000 subscribers on YouTube, he has a loyal following. Steve's idiosyncrasies endear him to his clients which, coupled with his bohemian and direct attitude, makes him a unique astrologer. He likes to think that he practices abnormal astrology.
